These operations are critical in assuring that the agency effectively implements its science, technology and education mission set forth in the NSF Act cited in item 2 above. Specialized guidance may be addressed through the use of subcommittees, task groups or committees of visitors (COVs) within the structure of the Advisory Committee.

The Committee will place emphasis on NSF's business practices and operations and innovative approaches to NSF's strategic goal achievement. The Committee will serve as a resource for considerations in internal workforce planning; corporate systems design and cutting-edge technology; diversity, equity, inclusion, and accessibility (DEIA); as well as the form and function for BFA, IRM, OCIO and the CDIO. The Committee may look at and advise upon operational models, skill mixes, internal customer service delivery, process improvements, and other matters in these areas of responsibility. They may also be called upon for advice on implementing policy or best practices on matters of concern to BFA/IRM/OCIO/CDIO.

The Committee shall from time to time examine its charter and recommend changes to the BFA, IRM, and OCIO Office Heads, and the CDIO for their consideration.
